Military Veterans to Receive Much Needed Support at Veterans Expo and Clinic

DALLAS/FORT WORTH TEXAS – Military Veterans will receive information and assistance with employment, disability compensation, education, home and land loans, and other state and federal benefits at a free Veterans Expo and Clinic on September 17 from 3:00 pm to 7:00 pm at the Sheraton Dallas, 400 North Olive, Dallas, Texas.

In addition to being home to Naval Air Station Joint Reserve Base Fort Worth, more than 240,000 Veterans live in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. The Veterans Expo and Clinic represents an opportunity for Veterans and active duty members to visit numerous service providers under one roof.

“Many Veterans are not aware of the full breadth of benefits they have earned through their service to our country,” says Thomas Palladino, Executive Director for the Texas Veterans Commission. “I strongly urge any Veteran interested in learning about his or her benefits to take advantage of this one-stop-shop event.”

The Texas Veterans Commission will also be hosting two additional seminars at the Sheraton Dallas: the Veterans Entrepreneur Clinic on September 16 from 2:00 pm to 6:30 pm and the Women Veterans Clinic on September 17 from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm. The Veterans Entrepreneur Clinic has over 200 registrants and will provide information regarding financial investing, government contracts, business plan development, and available resources for starting a business. The Women Veterans Clinic will provide information regarding health care, housing assistance, and other benefit information unique to women Veterans.

The Veterans Expo and Clinic is open to all Texas Veterans, active duty personnel and the family members of Veterans and active duty personnel free of charge. The Texas Veterans Commission, Veterans Land Board, U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs, other federal and state agencies as well as nonprofit organizations will be on hand to answer questions. Parking at the Sheraton hotel is free, courtesy of Dallas County.
